

FIVE DAYS IN PARADISE

PHILIPINES

Manila & Cebu

First Day

And Five Things you should do

Metropolitan Manila encompasses six cities and 12 towns. Located on Manila Bay in the South China Sea, and bisected by the Pasig River, the capital of the Philippines is historic and modern, rich and poor. A popular sight is the Intramuros, a walled area that was the capital during Spanish rule. Intramuros has retained old dungeons and gunpowder rooms but added art galleries and theatres. The city is filled with museums, shops, parks and churches, plus enough nightlife to last until dawn.

If you like to understand the Manila's past, make sure to visit these famous landmarks that will surely take you back in time. ( Historical Downtown)

Fort Santiago

Manila Cathed

Intramuros

Casa Manila

Rizal Park

MANILA Bay

Second Day

Hidden Valley Falls

Hidden Valley Springs, Laguna Where you could swim in warm and cold natural swimming pools; hike to Hidden Valley Falls .befor leaving Manila you should try it.

Third Day

And First day in Cebu City

From the cosmopolitan metropolis of Cebu City and the white-sand beaches of Mactan to the electric-blue waters of Kawasan Falls and the whale sharks of Oslob, it's easy to see why Cebu Island is one of the Philippines' top destinations.

Surpassed only by Manila in size, the Philippines' second city combines colonial architecture and mountainous surrounds with a burgeoning cultural and culinary scene. As the gateway to both Bohol and Cebu Island, Cebu City impresses with chic rooftop bars and intriguing museums.

Cebu is the largest island in the Visayas region, and is particularly rich in Spanish colonial history. The original capital of the Philippines until the 17th century, 'the Queen of the South' contains 6 major cities — Cebu, Danao, Lapu-Lapu, Mandaue, Toledo and Talisay.

To this day, Cebu Island still remains a prominent and popular part of the archipelago, boasting the most ethnically diverse population. Its inhabitants are an interesting bunch, made up of Malay, Chinese, Filipino and an ever-growing number of westerners. It's now considered to be the most dynamic island in the Philippines, attracting native and international tourists in droves.

Casa Gorordo
MUSEUM

Yap-Saniego
MUSEUM

Rajah Humabon
Monument

Basilica Minor del

Magellan's Cross

Fort San Pedro

Fourth Day

And Two under water activity

Helmet Diving

sea-walker has been designed to introduce people to the excitement of the underwater world. Sea-walker is also known as helmet diving. If medical is failed on board no refund will be given for sea-walker.

Scuba Diving

the sports of jumping or falling into water from a platform or spring board usually while performing acrobatics, diving an internationally recognized.

Whale and Dolphin Watching

Tañon Strait is a popular area for both whale and dolphin watching, especially during the peak months of March to June, when a number of local operators offer the chance to see these creatures in their natural habitat.

Fifth Day

And Four activity you should do

Parasailing

also known as parascending or parakitting. It is a recreational kitting activity wherein a person is towed behind a vehicles (usually a boat) while attached terminology history parasailing associations.

Jet SKI

is technically the brand name of a personal water craft manufactured by Kawasaki. It is a brand name for a type of small water vehicle for one or two people that is moved forward by a fast stream of water being pushed out behind it.

Banana Boat

(also known as water sled) is an unpowered inflatable recreational boat mean for towing different models. It usually accommodate three to ten riders in which they are sitting on a larger main tube and resting their feet on two laterally flanking tubes which stabilizes the boat.

Enjoying Beach under the sun

There's nothing better than a nice cocktail and a picnic basket on a extraordinary beach. Enjoy the day with scuba wind surfing, snorkeling or visiting a secret lagoon.

shambhala Travels
Peace, Love & Tranquility